Dear Dr. Pitanguy:

The faculty of the Home Study Course in Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery, a non-profit educational effort sponsored by the American Academy of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery Foundation, has selected your article, Prominent ears—Pitanguy's island technique: Long-term results HEAD AND NECK SURGERY 1985;7:418-426 to be included in our reading list for the coming year (section 4).

As part of this effort, we endeavor to send copies of articles selected on the reading list to our participants. The journal in which this article appeared has been asked permission to reprint it since they have copyright privileges at this point. It seems appropriate for us, however, to request your personal permission to reprint this article since it is your work. I might add that with this permission, approximately 2,000 copies of your article will be sent to residents and practitioners in Otolaryngology who participate in this educational effort.

We would like to congratulate you on this fine piece of work. Thank you for your time in this effort.

Sincerely,

H.C. Pillsbury III

Harold C. Pillsbury III, M.D.
Chairman, The Home Study Course Subcommittee

☒ I give permission to reprint my article for the Home Study Course in Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery.
